

Our Library Management System database design efficiently addresses core operational needs while maintaining scalability. The schema centers around a Books entity that connects to Authors, Publishers, and Genres through foreign keys, creating clear one-to-many relationships that prevent data redundancy. For customer interactions, we've implemented an association table (customer_book) that creates a many-to-many relationship between Books and Customers, allowing comprehensive tracking of borrowing history with borrow dates and return dates.